

ROOMS WITH A VIEW

PIP CHRISTMASS

In the Darkest Hour by Becky Blair (acrylic on canvas).

- Becky Blair is an internationally renowned British artist who returns to Gadfly Gallery for her third Australian show, Backseat Fiction, a showcase of oil and acrylic pieces completed after her recent travels through the Northern Territory and along the WA coastline. Blair's lively, eclectic style is combined with a vivid use of colour and dream-like imagery to reflect her travels. Gadfly Gallery director Anna Kwiecinska regards her as one of the gallery's biggest success stories, with her previous two exhibitions marking her out as a talent to watch. Backseat Fiction opens on Friday night and runs until December 22 at Gadfly Gallery, 131B Waratah Avenue, Dalkeith. For more information go to www.gadflygallery.com